

PLATT ADMITS SLATE IS MADE.

After Conference with Gov. Odell He Selects the Republican State Ticket.

BROOKLYN IS PUNISHED.

Guden Affair Is Regarded as a Black Eye to the Party and Second Place Goes Elsewhere.

Senator Platt admitted to The Evening World to-day that after many conferences with Gov. Odell he had chosen the slate that is to go through the Republican State Convention. Here is the slate.

For Governor—B. D. ODELL, Jr., of Orange.

For Lieutenant-Governor—GEORGE R. SHELDON, of New York.

For Secretary of State—JOHN B. McDONOUGH, of Albany.

For Comptroller—HENRY L. MILLER, of Cortland.

For State Treasurer—JOHN G. WICKS, of Buffalo.

For State Engineer and Surveyor—E. A. BOND, of Jefferson.

For Attorney-General—HENRY B. COHAN, of Yates, or FRANK H. ROBINSON, of Steuben.

For Judge of the Court of Appeals—WILLIAM E. WERNER, of Monroe.

It is not likely that there will be any changes. Friends of Sheriff Norman Dike, of Brooklyn, are pushing his name for the nomination for Lieutenant-Governor, on the ground that inasmuch as Gov. Odell is to be renominated and Lieut.-Gov. Woodruff is not, the second place on the ticket should by right go to a Kings County man.

Guden Affair a Black Eye.

This argument does not carry much weight with Senator Platt or Gov. Odell. They consider that the Kings County machine has caused the Republican party enough trouble over the Guden affair to relegate that section to the rear for some time to come.

Mr. Sheldon is Treasurer of the New York County Republican Committee, and is very close to Senator Platt and the Governor. He has never held public office and has not consented to have his name used in the convention, but no difficulty is anticipated on that score. Only his large business interests stand in the way of his candidacy.

Gov. Odell was expected in New York to-day to settle the question as to who shall act as temporary chairman of the convention. But the Governor is tired after a week of travelling and speech-making. He wired Senator Platt this morning that he was going to Lake Mohonk to rest over Sunday and would be in New York on Monday.

Quigg May Be Chairman.

Lemuel E. Quigg is the choice of Senator Platt and Gov. Odell for temporary chairman of the convention. Many sincere enemies of the Quigg are fighting him. Timothy L. Woodruff would like to have the honor that appears to be destined for Mr. Quigg, but the Guden matter stands in the way.

At a consultation between Senator Platt, Gov. Odell and Chairman Dunn, to be held Monday, it is expected that the platform will be outlined, and the question of how far to go on the trust question and endorsement of the administration of President Roosevelt will be decided. Several politicians agree that the President's Recorder Hauenstein will fall to the Quigg, but he is not popular with many of the men who are in the Republican party of the State of New York.

AMPLE EVIDENCE OF PETTY "GRAFT."

Supt. Weeks Finds that Many Public Bath Attendants Exacted Pay from Bathes.

Continuing his investigation of the condition of affairs existing at the Rivington street baths previous to Aug. 1, 1902, Supt. Weeks has made a report to President Cantor, stating that he has found ample evidence of money having been paid to the attendants for the privilege of bathing. The practice has prevailed to a greater extent on the female side. The World exposed this petty "grafting" system.

On the male side he has been able to find but a few men who say they have paid, and none will identify the parties guilty of taking the money. He is under the impression that the people think bathing facilities would be denied them were they to antagonize the attendants.

Mr. Weeks says there has been a great change in the attitude of the attendants. Nearly every one of them who comes in contact speaks in praise of the present conduct of the attendants. He gives it as his opinion after a month of personal observation that $150 a day is poor pay for the patience and endurance necessary.

HER DOCTOR ARRESTED.

Dr. William Menger, of Union, N. J., who was arrested on complaint of the Coroner's office of Manhattan, in connection with the death at St. Vincent's Hospital of Miss Catherine Brogan, was arrested before Recorder Hauenstein to-day. He made a general denial of the charges and was admitted to bail in $100.

Fined for Striking Without Notice.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Three hundred and seventeen striking colliers were fined 100 each at Doncaster to-day for leaving work without notice.

PEACE HOVERS OVER TAMMANY

Burying of Hatchets Means "Anything to Down Devery," 'Tis Said.

CARROLL THE COMING MAN

Ever Since Return of John Fox from Visit to Croker Warring Factions Have Been Getting Together.

A remarkable change has come over the complexion of affairs in Tammany Hall within a few days. Ever since the return of John Fox from a visit to Richard Croker there has been a burying of hatchets. Warring factions are getting together to fight what is considered by them a menace to Tammany success—Devery and Deveryism.

Soon after the return of Mr. Fox announcement was made from authoritative sources that Richard Croker never would return to New York. This was followed by visits from several adherents of Richard Croker to John F. Carroll.

Then Thomas Gilleran, who has been fighting Carroll for the Tammany leadership of the Twenty-ninth Assembly District, withdrew, and at the present time everything appears to be coming Carroll's way.

Afraid of Devery.

Devery has scared the Tammany leaders. They have decided that if he succeeds in winning the leadership of the Ninth his magnificent egotism will tempt him to strive for the leadership of Tammany Hall, to the detriment of Tammany Hall and everybody connected with it.

Political rumor has it that John F. Carroll has had assurances from Croker that if he can stop the course of Devery opposition to him from the Croker forces will be withdrawn. At least two men very close to Croker have called upon Carroll within a week and talked with him long and earnestly, and it is said that the three Sullivan—"Big Tim," "Little Tim" and "Florie"—were called to Tammany Hall yesterday and asked by "Sport" Murphy to throw their influence in the Ninth against Devery. The same rumor has it that the Sullivan family is working to get into Tammany Hall as a leader, believing that this will hurt the State Democratic ticket. The State Republican Committee and the County Committee are spending money in the Ninth to secure the triumph of Devery—and the leaders of Tammany know it.

May Succeed Croker.

Ever alert to grasp an opportunity John F. Carroll has not overlooked this. Two weeks ago friends of Croker in Tammany were saying that Carroll would be beaten in his own district. Now they are saying that he will win. If he does win it would not surprise those in the know to see him go after the leadership of Tammany Hall and get it.

An Evening World reporter saw Mr. Carroll this afternoon in his fourteenth street bank. It was suggested to him that everything looked favorable for his promotion to the Tammany leadership.

"I am out for the leadership of the Twenty-ninth Assembly District," he said, "and I am going to win."

It is said that John F. Carroll brought an olive branch to Croker from Richard Croker, and the reporter.

There are busy doings in Tammany Hall.

"TIM" SULLIVAN WITH MARCH'S PICNIC PARTY

About three thousand residents of the old Fourteenth Ward are guests of Port Warden James E. March, Republican leader of the Sixth Assembly District, to-day at Greenwood Lake.

They gathered at the Chambers street ferry of the Erie Railroad, and were sent over to the Jersey side, where two special trains waited to carry them to the picnic ground. The Port Warden personally conducted the embarkation at this side of the river.

Senator Timothy Sullivan, the opponent of the Tammany Central Club, was prominent among the invited guests. Postmaster Van Cott, George H. Manchester, "Abe" Gruber, Judge Blanchard and Lemuel E. Quigg were among others. While the early comers were assembling at the ferry Center's band, stationed at the entrance, played popular airs, and when the first train was despatched this band was sent over to go with it and its place was taken by Pinto's band, which finally accompanied the second special. Three express cars were necessary to carry the eatables, drinkables and cigars for the day.

MURPHY'S FOLLOWERS ENJOY AN OUTING.

To-day is a big day in the Twentieth Assembly District. It is a red-letter day for the Tammany Central Club, especially for leader Thomas Murphy, the successor to James P. Keating. Every follower of the fortunes of the Wigwam in the district is up at Witzel's Point View Grove at the outing and games of the Tammany Central Club.

Early in the morning the cohort of Murphy assembled in the club-house in Thirty-second street, near Third avenue. Leader Murphy beamed with joy as he looked upon his followers when the Marshal of the day, former Assistant District Attorney Cornelius Collins, who is a captain in the Sixty-ninth Regiment, and Deputy Marshal W. J. Featherstone gave the orders to fall in line. McLaughlin's Band, the Sixty-ninth Regiment Drum and Fife Corps and the Calvary Drum and Fife Corps started

POICE CAPTAINS IN EXILE BEMOAN THEIR DISMAL FATES.

Cooney, Banished to the Region of the Foody, Consigned to the Realm of Goats, Horselfy, Sits on the Stoop and Thinks All Day.

I'd often heard of Brownsville And that some folks hold it dear, But I never thought 'twould be my fate To gather moss out there.

—Lament of Capt. Cooney.

Brownsville is an uncharted obstruction in Brooklyn. Capt. Cooney went out there to-day from Macdougall street.

"Stung!" said Capt. Cooney as he entered the red brick station-house.

The thirty-five policemen lined up to greet him laughed hollowly.

It was the first laugh they had had for a long time. There are not many laughs in Brownsville. Everybody out there works in sweatshops.

And sweats.

The streets are covered with everything but pavements.

Nothing can be heard but the hum of sewing machines and the bleating of goats.

The saloons have fly-paper on the bars.

This is a warning that the saloon-keepers are fly. They close their places at 1 o'clock every morning.

There is nothing else for them to do.

And after they pay the brewery man on the first of the month not even a wardman could squeeze anything out of them but regret.

Gambling houses are unknown in Brownsville. A man out there who wins 35 cents playing pinocle in a lumber yard is considered a sport.

"How do you like the place?" asked the sergeant.

The sergeant has lived in Brooklyn all his life. He came to Manhattan to see the Dewey parade and lost a gold watch.

"What do I think of the place?" repeated Capt. Cooney.

Then he went out on the front stoop and sat there all day.

to play and Murphy, surrounded by his friends, stepped into line and the march was begun. Fully 4,000 men, including the Thomas Foley Progressive Club, marched through several streets and avenues to the foot of East Thirty-first street, where the Iron Steamboats Cynos and Sirius were boarded. The entire district was gay with bunting and the leader was cheered lustily along the line of march.

There was a short sail down the river and the boats were served and then Messrs. Prunty and McKinney announced the various games, including a horse race for the heavy-weights, a baseball game between the club line and the John T. Oakley's nine. The prize was a beautiful silver loving cup. A bowling contest, 10-yard dash, 20-yard dash, one-half mile run, fat men's race, broad jump, potato race, putting the 12-pound shot, shooting and a boys' race for members' sons. At dinner time Charles Murphy, Commissioner Haffen, ex-Judge McMahon, President Jacob Cantor, John Foley, John Oakley, Judge Dan Sullivan, John T. Oakley and many of the various district leaders arrived.

The marchers took part in the big time were John F. McCabe, chairman of the committee of arrangements, John O'Neil, James Purcell, Stephen O'Brien, President of the Thomas Murphy Club, John P.
